

SECOND HAND BOOKS

RING 01225-335813 for more details

One of our readers, Richard Dean, has died, leaving a large collection of cricket books for which his nephew and niece have asked us to help find homes. Most of the books have Richard Dean's printed nameplate stuck inside. Our emphasis is on finding homes for the books – so our prices are on the low side. We will have to add postage but will do our best to keep it to a minimum. A single book will cost £2.50, but a box of 20 books might only be £8.
